JUDICIAL OFFICER

This order is effective when made. It is enforceable in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, all tribal lands, and all U.S. territories, and shall be enforced as if it were an order of that jurisdiction by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS). If proof of service on the restrained person has not been received, and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing, the law enforcement agency shall advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then shall enforce it. Violations of this restraining order are subject to federal and state criminal penalties. By California state law, violation of this temporary restraining order is a misdemeanor, punishable by one year in jail, a $1,000 fine, or both, or may be punishable as a felony. Any person subject to a restraining order is prohibited from purchasing or attempting to purchase, receiving or attempting to receive, or otherwise obtaining a firearm. Such conduct is subject to a $1,000 fine and imprisonment. If a final order is entered against the restrained person after the hearing, even if the restrained person did not attend, he or she may be prohibited from possessing, transporting, or accepting a firearm under the 1994 amendments to the Gun Control Act, 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(8). A violation of this prohibition is a separate offense.
